MUJERES

APARTE MUSIC Mars 2023

ABOUT THE REPERTOIRE

Writers, composers, dreamers, mothers, femininity is expressed through artistic creations that confirm sensuality and strength by nature.

Often in transgression and rebellion, often in disorder and pain, often forced to be silent, women voice's are the thread for our program.

From the Virgin Mary, to Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz, through a reverence to Mother Earth or Pachamama, according to the tradition of Afro-Amerindian communities, MUJERES pays homage to the outstanding female personalities of the New World, with a poetic selection of their musical heritage from the time of the colonies to the present day.

Mujeres

Aparté

Mujeres weaves together classical and Latin styles in a breathtaking tribute to the women of the New World. The album pays homage to poets, composers, dreamers and mothers who have expressed their femininity, sensuality and strength through art. Diana Baroni (voice, traverso, quijada) describes the project as an offering to the women who ideals and make new thoughts blossom, to those who have lost their children, and to those who without children become mothers through their actions and their love.

Joined by Ronald Martin Alonso (viola da gamba) and Rafael Guel Frias (baroque guitar, flutes, percussion, voice), the trio has created 14 spellbinding arrangements of traditional and popular songs. Highlights include 'La Petenera', an uplifting song in the Mexican son huasteco style that's dedicated to opera singer La Petenera. Conversely, the bewitching slow zamba rhythm of 'Alfonsina y el Mar' recounts the tragic story of Alfonsina Storni, a post-modern Argentinian poetess who committed suicide in 1938 in Mar del a wonderfully brooding lament over music typical of the Isthmus of the Tehuantepec region of Mexico. With first-class performances and captivating themes, listeners experience a sublime spiritual journey on Mujeres.
